Stop Blood Bath Says Cuban Group

THE CUBAN Refugee Medical Society (CMC) has appealed to the Inter-American Press Association for hemisphere-wide efforts "to halt the blood bath in Cuba."

THE CMC addressed its appeal to Jules DuBois of The Chicago Tribune, chairman of the IAPA's freedom of the press committee.

"Cuban (refugee) doctors are profoundly moved, like all Cubans, by the latest executions in our country, which add nine martyrs to the endless chain of Cubans who have fallen victim to Communist tyranny," said a letter signed by CMC president Enrique Huertas.

We Did Send Plane, Exiles Insist

AN ANTI-CASTRO group claimed it sent a plane from Florida to Cuba and that government investigators coerced one of their men to deny that he made the flight.

Disturbed by a Pentagon statement that reports of the flight were a "complete and utter hoax," the International Anti-Communist Brigade issued a statement that said the plane took off from Florida on a flight plan to the Bahamas, landed at a base "outside U.S. territory" and then flew to Cuba.

The statement said that one of the group's members, Frank Fiorini, denied only that he personally made the flight.
